

Willowhayne Estate Weekend Gate Closures

Have your say!

At the July 2018 AGM, some of our Estate residents expressed a wish to re-establish weekend gate closures, in order to preserve the privacy of the Estate and deter non-residents from using it as a short cut. This would involve closing The Ridings gate (leading on to Sea Lane) each Saturday, between 8am and 6pm, and the Angmering Lane gate each Sunday, between 8am and 6pm. The gates would be closed and opened by a rota of volunteers. Regardless of any decision, the gates will still be closed once a year to preserve our rights as a private estate and to prevent the creation of a permanent right of way.

As this decision will affect everyone, the WRA Board would like all residents, not just those attending the AGM, to have a say in whether weekend gate closures should go ahead. We would strongly urge you to take part in this important vote, by completing the form below and answering 'yes' or 'no' to the question. The closing date for receiving responses is 31st January 2019.

Please note: Only one form must be returned per household. Anonymous communication will not be considered. The Board will evaluate the vote within six weeks of the closing date. The outcome will be determined by the majority of votes received and it is hoped that the decision taken by residents, whether to close gates at weekends or not, will remain in place for at least five years. The results will be published in the following newsletter.

Thank you for taking part in this important vote.
